

Being a BC Eagle?

Olivia Hardenburg

I am a member of the Class of 2024 at the Carroll School of Management, concentrating on Marketing as well as pursuing a double major in Film Studies. I'm originally from Dallas, TX, so going to school in Boston was a big leap for me. Additionally, my freshman year began in the midst of the COVID-19 pandemic, which made the transition into college life much more challenging. But, by joining clubs, such as Consultants for Social Impact and BCTV, and meeting people on my dorm floor, I was able to meet more of my classmates and form close friendships. During my sophomore year, I got to participate in various aspects of campus life that were missing from my freshman year, from football games to in-person classes. Although the beginning of freshman year was a big transition, Boston College now feels like home.
